The Great Hippodrome's first and only tour through the West, stopping only at the principal and central points to which excursion trains can be run. Thousands of people turned from the doors at almost every exhibition, unable to obtain admission. No such success was ever achieved, and any other enterrainment of its magnitude will never again be seen in this generation. Respiendent with all the pomp and glory of Casar's era, Incurring Stupendous Cost, and Without a Parallel in any Age.

It has elicifed hundreds of columns of voluntary commendations from the religious and secular press of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and other cities, and the plaudits of nearly 10,000,000 satisfied auditors of the part year, all agreeing such predominant success was never before achieved on the face of the gobe.
